In This Issue

Special coins at reduced prices are key features of this month's Inventory Selections. For example, you'll find 1880 Liberty Head Eagles, and No Motto Liberty Head Double Eagles (Type One) at especially low prices. Scan our listings pages for these bargains. They constitute a rare opportunity to inexpensively build up your present gold collection — or to start a new one.

Also, look for our new coin offerings this month. There are hundreds of them — because we've been busily acquiring coins at every show we attend.

One show we were particularly glad to attend was the Bay State Coin & Stamp Show held right here in Boston. We were gratified that so many knowledgeable numismatists visited our home city, and we enjoyed meeting those of you who came to our tables. Also, New England Rare Coin Auctions would like to thank the bidders and consignors who made the A.J. Amato II Sale (held in conjunction with the show) so successful.

Don't forget our open invitation to get involved in what goes into Inventory Selections. We carefully read every letter we receive. And we're always glad to get questions to be answered in our regular Numismatic and Investment Forum columns.

Finally, you'll note that we're including two order forms with this issue. Many of you have asked us to add this extra order form — either to pass along to a friend, or to order a second time from the same issue. So from now on, you'll find two order forms with every Inventory Selections. Give one to a fellow collector. Or use it yourself to order additional coins.

HALF CENTS

- 1808, BROWN UNC(60). Exceptionally well struck for the date, with a hint of mint red. Scarce and underrated. 495.00
1809 NORMAL, BORDERLINE UNC(55/60). 145.00
1828 13 STARS, BORDERLINE UNC(55/60). G-1. 95.00
1833, CHOICE PROOF. Attractive red and brown coloration. Possibly cleaned long ago, but this is barely discernable. A lovely coin. 695.00
1834, AU(50). Sharp strike. Traces of P-L lustre. 75.00
CH. UNC(60/65). Red and brown. Semi-P-L fields. Full strike. 350.00
1851, CH. BROWN UNC(60). 159.00
CH. BROWN UNC(60). Traces of mint red. 175.00
1854, CH. BROWN UNC(60). Full strike. 160.00

LARGE CENTS

- 1794 "HEAD OF 1794", VF-EF(35). S-22, R-1. 360.00
1803 SMALL DATE, LG. FRACTION, VF-EF(35). 125.00
AU(50). A few tiny edge nicks. 375.00
BORDERLINE UNC(55). Sharply struck, lustrous and strictly original. 895.00
1810, VF(25). 100.00

1871-S, CH. BU(60/65). Full strike. Satin-like fields very scarce. 450.00
1872, AU(50). Original toning. 45.00
BORDERLINE UNC(55/60). 130.00
UNC(60). Light steel gray toning. Somewhat softly struck. 150.00
BU(60). Full strike. 195.00
CH. UNC(60/65). Natural light golden toning. Not quite fully struck. Otherwise, a gem. 275.00

EARLY DIMES

1807, CH. BU(60/65). Full frosty mint bloom and almost fully struck. The best STRUCK 1807 dime we've ever seen. 3,950.00
SUPERB UNC(65/70). Fantastic lustre. Lovely original blue and steel gray toning. 9,500.00
1814 SM. DATE, BORDERLINE UNC(55). The right side is weakly struck as usual. Very close to mint state. Considered a "sleeper" by many experts. Scott's Encyclopedia lists the mintage at less than 1/10th the lg. date (34,500 vs. 387,000) and states: "Excessively rare in UNC, traditionally underrated in all grades." Priced very reasonably at 695.00
1820 LG.0, CH. AU(50/55). Lustrous. Light original golden toning. 400.00
GEM BU(65). Above average strike. Blazing lustre beneath beautiful light golden toning. 2,500.00
1822, SUPERB BU(65/70). Full strike. Probably the finest known. Ex. A. J. Amato sale. 4,500.00
1831, CH. BU(60/65). P-L or proof. Full square edges on both sides. P-L surfaces beneath light golden toning. A lovely coin, and whether proof or mint state, it is certainly an excellent value at 1,250.00
1832, TONED UNC(60). Attractive natural gold and steel gray. 795.00
SUPERB BU(65/70). Attractive russet toning over blazing lustre. 2,750.00
1833, AU(50) CLEANED. Full strike. 139.00
BORDERLINE UNC(55). Full strike. 450.00
1834 LG.4, BU(60). Full strike. 795.00
SUPERB UNC(65/70). Full strike. Virtually MS-70 with lovely gold and steel gray toning. 2,750.00
1835, GEM UNC(65). Full strike. Deep iridescent steel gray toning, over faintly P-L surfaces. 1,650.00

Coins & Keoghs

Ever wish that you could take a tax deduction on your numismatic transactions while you're building a collection?

There is a way to do so — by placing coins in a Keogh Retirement Plan. Keoghs allow a collector or investor to buy and sell rare coins tax-free until that collector/investor reaches retirement.

Not that Keogh Plans will help you escape the tax collector forever. When you finally reach retirement, you will have to pay income taxes on the amounts you withdraw from the plan. However, by keeping your numismatic investments in a Keogh, you can minimize taxation. This is because, at retirement, your tax bracket should be relatively low. Therefore, the government won't be taking as great a percentage from your numismatic profits at retirement as they would were you to pay taxes on those profits now.

If you've ever investigated tax-sheltered retirement plans, you probably know about Keogh Plans. Basically, they allow self-employed individuals and free-lancers to shelter as much as $7,500 in pre-tax earnings (or 15% of your total pre-tax earnings — whichever is less) per year. But what many people don't realize is that Keoghs can also be used as a tax shelter for numismatic transactions. Here's how it works:

For coin collectors/investors who've already established a Keogh Plan, it's easy to arrange the tax-free sale of your coins if you've got a knowledgeable financial advisor. Your advisor can help you convert some or all of your present Keogh funds to rare coins. Once you've done so, you're allowed to sell those coins without paying sales taxes as long as the sales proceeds are put back into the Keogh.

It should be noted that converting your present Keogh funds to rare coins can even be done with "frozen Keoghs" — i.e. even if you're no longer legally able to contribute more funds to your Keogh (because your status has changed from self-employed individual or free-lancer to that of employee), you can still convert the funds you already have in your Keogh to rare coins. Once this is done, you can buy and sell the coins in your Keogh as long as the proceeds are put back into that Keogh. Thus, you'll be able to use the high growth rate of rare coins to boost the growth rate of your Keogh fund.

For coin collectors/investors without Keoghs, arranging the tax-free sale of your coins means establishing a Keogh Plan. This involves contacting a qualified trustee (usually a bank) and setting up the plan under that trustee before December 31. Once this is done, you can place coins in the plan at a yearly rate of $7,500 worth (or at a rate equal to 15% of your total earnings — whichever is less). Later, these coins can be sold tax-free as long as the sales proceeds are put back into the Keogh.

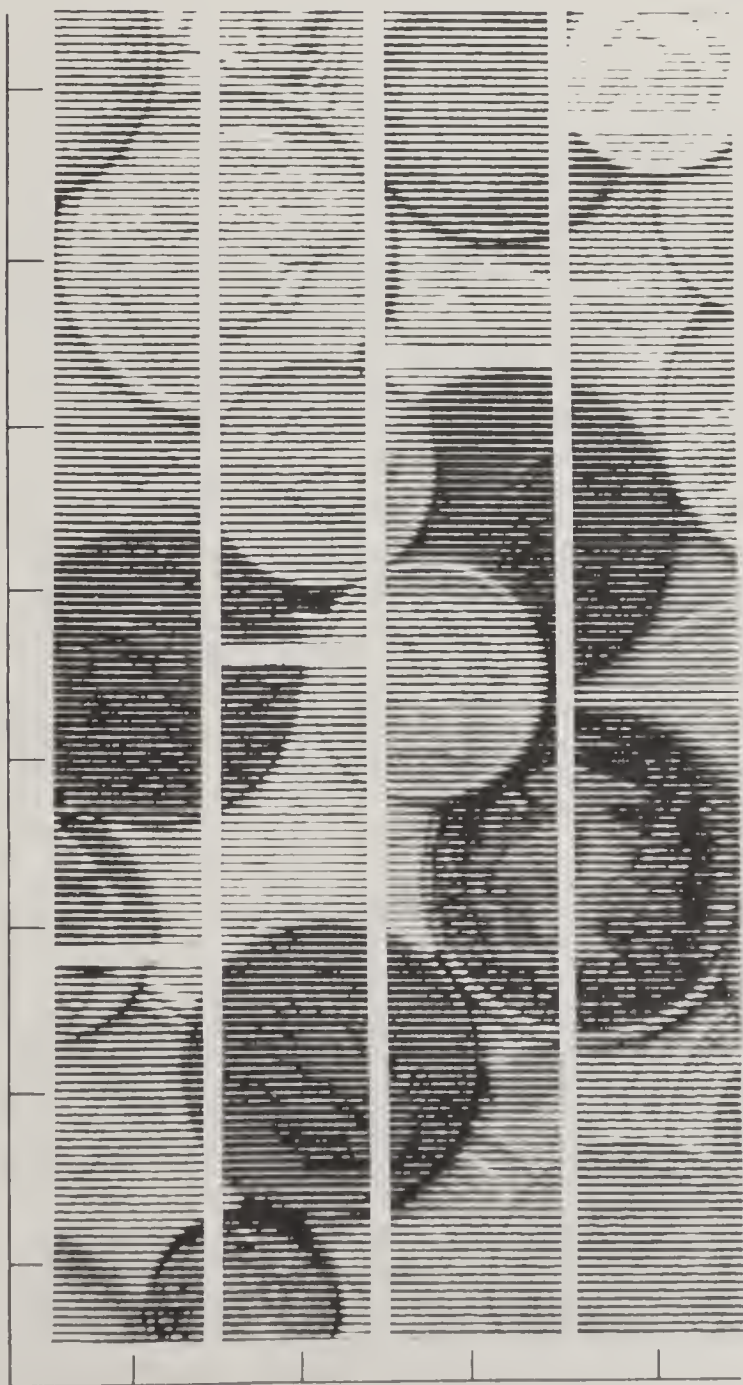

Of course, some investors shy away from arrangements where sales proceeds must be returned to an "untouchable" pool of funds. However, Keogh funds aren't really "untouchable." The money from Keogh coin sales can be used to buy more coins for the plan. And, if an emergency arises, federal law does allow you to withdraw funds from a Keogh at any time. However, withdrawing before age 59½ can result in tax penalties. Therefore, the full tax-saving benefits of Keogh can only be realized by thinking of the plan as a long-term investment.

What does this mean in dollars and cents? Let's say that, because of your income tax bracket, you're allowed to place $7,500 worth of rare coins into your Keogh during the plan's initial year. Assuming that coins continue to appreciate at 12.3% (the average annual growth rate of all coins is actually much higher), you could sell those coins 10 years later for a tax-free profit of $16,425. You could then reinvest that profit in more coins for your Keogh. By contributing $7,500 worth of coins to your Keogh each year for the next 20 years, the plan would be worth over $750,000 (again, assuming 12.3% growth per year).

Of course, you could get that same sort of growth from your collection without establishing a Keogh. Coins appreciate at a fantastic rate whether they lie in a Keogh, in a bank or on someone's shelf. However, Keoghs make it easier to build your collection because their power to shelter numismatic transactions from taxation means more working capital for the investor.

Therefore, if you'd like to establish an inexpensive method of building your collection and planning a secure future, investigate placing coins in a Keogh Plan. However, remember that you must be either self-employed or a free-lancer in order to qualify for Keogh. If you qualify, call your financial advisor. Or write to New England Rare Coin Galleries, Dept. M-48, P.O. Box 1776, Boston MA 02105. Ask for our free brochure, Coins & Keoghs: Some Advice on Retirement Planning. It includes all you need to know about converting your present Keogh funds into rare coins — or about establishing a new Keogh.

When should you begin investigating Keogh Plans? Soon! The sooner you begin placing coins in a Keogh, the sooner you can begin building your collection tax-free. And remember that, if you need to establish a new Keogh, you must do so by December 31. Otherwise you won't qualify for tax-savings this year.

Market Report

by Tim LaPointe

As predicted, the fall of '78 has shaped up as one of the most active numismatic periods in recent years. Not only is dealer activity reaching all-time highs, but collector/investor activity is increasing beyond all expectations.

Nor has the recent drop in the price of gold (from the $240's to the $210's) put a damper on the rare coin market. The drop has affected bullion-related items. For example, Mexican 50 pesos have slipped from $310 to $275, and Krugerrands recently dropped from $260 to $230. However, the furious numismatic activity in recent months has actually pulled many rarities into the market which are not usually available. For example, in the past few months, New England has been privileged to handle specimens like an 1808 $2½ Gold Piece, an 1879 Flowing Hair Stella and a 1912 Matte Proof $20 St. Gaudens.

Silver has reached a record price of over $6.00 per ounce. However, silver has also settled down and is now around $5.85 per ounce. The drop in silver, as with gold, has not affected the rarer type coins. Gem quality coins in almost every series have enjoyed impressive gains. For example, almost all Walking Liberty Half Dollar singles and rolls have registered a recent upswing. The rarer coins, such as the Flowing Hair, Seated Liberty and Barber series, are pulling in strong prices. BU rolls of Morgan Silver Dollars continue to advance as well.

Two items that haven't fared as well are Buffalo Nickels and Eisenhower Dollars. Buffalo Nickel prices remained stable while Ike Dollars have dropped back to realistic prices.

All in all, present economic conditions seem to be funneling more investment money into numismatics. This should help keep the market strong in the immediate future and push it to even greater heights in coming years.

Investment Forum

Editor's note: With this issue of Inventory Selections, our regular bi-monthly Investment Forum column returns. If you'd like us to answer your investment questions, write: Greg Potter, New England Rare Coin Galleries, 89 Devonshire Street, Boston, MA 02109. And don't forget to send in your numismatic questions for next month when Numismatic Forum will reappear.

I've been sticking pretty much to silver these days. The gold market seems tricky. Does the fluctuation of gold bullion affect U.S. gold coins? — K.E., Lansing, MI.

There's no across-the-board answer to that question. It really depends upon the status of the specific coins. However, as a rule, common date, average condition gold coins (so-called "bullion coins" which are purchased more for their gold content than their scarcity) are directly affected by changes in gold bullion prices. (Examples of bullion coins include some of the Liberty Head Double Eagles dated from the 1890's to 1907, 1927 St. Gaudens Double Eagles and 1907 Liberty Eagles.) This, of course, can be either a boon or a bust to the owners of such coins. If gold goes up sharply, bullion coin owners could make a killing — if it goes down, they may lose out. Thus, successfully investing in bullion coins involves careful monitoring of bullion prices.

On the other hand, truly rare coins are generally not affected by gold bullion prices. This is because, as with any commodity, supply and demand dictate price. Since, by definition, the supply of rare gold coins is always low, prices remain relatively high.

This is why knowledgeable financial advisors usually suggest one of two courses of action for gold investors. The first is to buy a mixture of "bullion" and rare gold coins (for example, a 12-piece Gold type Set). Diversifying in this manner will act as hedge against dramatic downturns in the gold market while allowing the investor to take advantage of sharp upturns.

A second course of action is to buy only rare gold coins (like the Type II $1 Gold Piece in Gem BU condition). The laws of supply and demand should keep the price of these items high.

How can a coin investor decide whether prices for Superb or Gem UNC coins are fair when the Red Book only goes up to MS-60? Are there any other price-guide books which list these grades? — G.B., New York, N.Y.

Unfortunately, there don't seem to be any price references for Superb and Gem UNC coins — at least, none that have been formalized in book form. However, there is a way that you can substantiate prices for coins in these grades: comparison shopping. For example, if you're thinking of buying a specific coin, you might want to compare its price with prices for similar Superb/Gem UNC pieces as listed in Coin World dealer listings, the Coin Dealer Newsletter, or in records of prices realized at recent auctions.

However, keep one important point in mind. Don't comparison-shop simply to find the lowest price. Dealers vary in their definitions of "Superb" and "Gem UNC." Thus, the Superb coin you purchase at a low price from one dealer may not be as good an investment as that purchased for a slightly higher price from another dealer. Instead, comparison-shop to find out the normal range of prices that most Superb/Gem UNC coins of the type you're interested in fall into. If the coin you're thinking of buying falls into that range, and the dealer you're buying from is experienced in accurate grading, it's probably a good investment.

Could you give me an investment map for rare coin investing? What types of coins does New England recommend? — F.H., Scranton, PA.

The types, dates and conditions that you invest in should be, to a great extent, determined by your personal preferences. That's why it's always wise to consult personally with a New England numismatist before buying. By discussing your own preferences and investment goals with New England, you can best determine what types of rare coin investments are right for you.

We do, however, have two basic suggestions for you. First: it's always wise to diversify. Second: buy coins of proven scarcity — i.e. top-quality pieces that are already in low supply and high demand. True, these coins' prices may at first seem prohibitively high, but if the quality is there, and if you keep the coin for a number of years, your final profits will be well worth the initial expenditure.

The Coin That Tells the Thanksgiving Story

The Pilgrim Tercentenary Puzzle

History tells us that William Bradford, second governor of Plymouth Plantation, was a strong, forceful man — a man who refused to give in — a stoic who said “no” to kings, bishops and the very forces of nature. If any of America’s forefathers deserved the title “Pilgrim,” it was Bradford. He helped devise the Mayflower Compact which established democracy in America — and he gave us the holiday we call Thanksgiving.

I was surprised, then, when I first saw Cyrus E. Dallin’s portrait of Governor Bradford on the obverse of the Pilgrim Tercentenary Commemorative Half Dollar. Rather than a dynamic, stoic leader, Dallin has sculpted a humble, worshipful follower — an individual with boney, sunken features, eyes that gaze groundward and a bowed, reverent head. Surely, Dallin didn’t do his homework!

Or did he?

In 1920, when the Pilgrim Tercentenary Commission of Plymouth, Massachusetts, selected Dallin to design the coin, they’d done so with great care. After all, the 300th anniversary of the Plymouth Rock landing was a very special event — one which called for an artist of note and experience. Such was Dallin. He’d already sculpted a number of statues having to do with Pilgrims and he had a fine sense of composition.

Could such an accomplished coin engraver really be guilty of misrepresenting Bradford? After all, no one on the Commission of Fine Arts had protested Dallin’s portrayal of the governor. Even the boisterous C. S. Ridley (who was, at the time, Secretary of the Commission), acknowledged that, over-all, Dallin’s design was “good.”

However, Ridley also pointed out some problems with the coin’s design. For example, its lettering is crude — so crude, in fact, that Ridley wrote an angry letter to Mint Director Baker expressing discontent that Dallin’s design “was submitted . . . at such a late date that there was no opportunity . . . to bring the work in harmony with [our] standards.” Additionally, Dallin’s Mayflower, engraved on the coin’s reverse, sports an anachronistic banner atop its center spar. Thus, in some ways, Dallin’s design does seem hurried and ill-researched.

Yet, these problems may be isolated. They don’t necessarily mean that Dallin did a poor job on all aspects of the coin’s design. Thus, the question remains: is Dallin’s design of Bradford an inaccurate depiction of this historic leader, or does Dallin’s work reveal something about the governor’s personality that most historians overlook?

The Historic William Bradford

After studying Bradford and the Pilgrims in some depth, it seems the latter is true: that Dallin’s design paints a more accurate picture of Plymouth’s governor than do most historians.

True, Bradford was a dynamic, forceful leader. He had to be. The times demanded it. When Bradford was elected governor, the Pilgrims had been in America only four short months. Yet, in that time, famine, lack of clothing and an epidemic of influenza had already ravaged Plymouth Plantation. By April of 1621, over half of the approximately 100 Pilgrim settlers had died — including Plymouth’s first governor, John Carver.

Despite these impossible conditions, Bradford stood firm. He assured his people that God would not forget them — and he refused to give in when his followers proposed discarding Pilgrim ideals. The stoic example Bradford set kept his people united until help arrived in the spring of 1621.

It was then that Squanto, an Indian whose tribe had settled nearby, appeared in Plymouth and befriended the white men. More important, Squanto introduced the Pilgrims to corn and taught them how to fertilize their land. By the fall, Bradford’s people had harvested enough to last the winter. In celebration, they held the feast we now call Thanksgiving. On that day, Pilgrim spirits were high — but the Pilgrim people would never have survived without someone persuasive and forceful to lead them through the hard times.

The Numismatic William Bradford

However, there must also have been another side of William Bradford — the side that Dallin, unlike some historians, refused to ignore. After all, Bradford was extremely popular. During his lifetime, his people elected him governor 30 times! Popularity of this sort was never bestowed on one-dimensional, totally aggressive leaders. The Pilgrim people were fundamentalists, and any man who couldn’t show humility in the face of God was not, to the Pilgrims, a real “man” at all. Had Bradford been the totally dynamic, aggressive type, he’d never have been reelected so many times. Nor, probably, would he have had the humility to dedicate Thanksgiving Day to the bounty of nature and the goodness of God.

Bradford’s personality, therefore, seems dualistic. He must have had a great inner strength, stoicism and dynamism which enabled him to lead his people through the bad times — yet, he also must have possessed an outer humility toward God and his fellow men.

This is the William Bradford that the Pilgrim Tercentenary Commemorative Half Dollar depicts. Bradford’s posture may be that of a follower — but, as symbolized by the Bible he clutches, this man follows God. At the same time, Dallin has composed Bradford’s figure in a monolithic triangle. Bradford’s strong left arm forms a solid base for that monolith. And the curvature of Bradford’s spine seems to echo the coin’s outer rim — almost as if Bradford is symbolically bowing in harmony with his environment.

Thus, Dallin’s Pilgrim Tercentenary Commemorative Half Dollar nicely balances the strong and the humble aspects of Bradford’s character. It’s a coin that gives greater insight into the history of William Bradford — and the history of that first Thanksgiving Day.

1859-D, CH. AU(50/55).	1,150.00
1859-S, BORDERLINE UNC(55/60). Fully struck with satin-like surfaces. Akers writes: "Reasonably scarce as a date (on a par with the 1857-S and 1858-S) but extraordinarily difficult to find better than EF as the data clearly shows. Out of 70 total offerings in the 192 auctions tallied, only 10 pieces graded AU or better! I personally have never seen a choice uncirculated specimen, and only two or three that could even really be called "sliders". Possibly the most underrated date in high grade in the entire gold dollar series."	795.00

1860, SUPERB BU(65/70). Incredible, dazzling lustre. Beautiful light copper toning. A greater sleeper in this condition, and almost impossible to find at any price. Even our "absurd" price will seem like an incredible bargain a few years from now.

1875, BU(60) P-L.	12,500.00
1878, SUPERB BU(65/70). Semi-P-L. Virtually MS-70. UNBELIEVABLE! Akers writes: "This is a somewhat underrated date, certainly much more rare than any of the dates that follow, and also more difficult to obtain in choice condition than 1877. Most Uncs. that I have seen were "scuffy" and 1878's in the gem class are seldom encountered."	4,500.00
1880, BR. PROOF, GEM. A true proof with deep mirror fields. Much rarer than its price indicates. Akers writes: "A very popular date with a low mintage of only 1,636 pieces. However, this date was rather extensively hoarded and, as a result, it is one of the most common Type III gold dollars in Unc. Many superb quality specimens exist, and actually any specimen short of choice Unc. is very unusual. Many of the choice uncirculated pieces are fully proof-like, and therefore they are easily confused with proof. Of the 31 so-called "proofs" offered, it seems likely that many were merely Unc. rather than proofs."	2,500.00

EARLY QUARTER EAGLES

1802, CH. UNC(60/65). Full blazing mint frost, with a hint of P-L surface on the reverse. Only the characteristic slight weakness of strike in the centers keeps us from calling this beautiful coin a gem. Absolutely NO adjustment marks. Breen #4 which is considered by some to be an overdate. (If you follow this particular school of thought, this coin is approximately 3 times rarer than the 1802/1 overdate varieties.) Regardless of this, all early quarter eagles are extremely rare and underrated in choice mint state. This is an excessively rare coin, in exceptional condition. It would grace the very finest collection. . 17,500.00
 1806/4, EF-AU(45/50). A lovely coin with traces of P-L surface. Somewhat weakly struck in the centers as nearly always. (Akers writes: "The 1806/4 is almost always weakly struck in the centers of both obv. and rev., but such weak striking is characteristic of all dates of this type.") Also there is one tiny rev. edge nick. Actually this coin is very close to AU grade, and the date very seldom seen in better condition than this. An excellent value at 3,950.00
 CH. BU(60/65). Akers writes: "The 1806/4 is almost always weakly struck in the centers of both obverse and reverse, but such weak striking is characteristic of all dates of this type. Strictly mint state examples are exceedingly rare and I have never personally examined one, although a few are reported to exist." This coin is weakly struck in the centers, as all are, but it is still a positively beautiful coin. Beautiful satin-like fields beneath attractive original copper toning. The finest we've seen and surely one of the finest known. 19,500.00
 1807, VF(25). Attractive and very reasonably priced. 1,950.00
 1808, AU(50). Sharply struck and lustrous. A classic rarity. 23,500.00

1827, CH. BU(60/65). Full strike, semi-P-L. A virtual gem coin and absolutely lovely. Akers writes: "Typically, this date is flatly struck on the head of Liberty, even more so than on the issues of 1824 and 1825. Choice specimens of this date are extremely rare, and are, in experience, less available than for any other date of this type." This specimen is 100% fully struck with full hair detail. Overall, it is by far the finest specimen of the date that we have ever seen. Very possibly it is the finest in existence. A priceless opportunity! 16,000.00

1831, GEM BU(65). Nearly superb with an absolutely spectacular appearance. This is a vastly underpriced type coin in gem condition. With true gem classic head $2½'s bringing $5000 and up, a capped head $2½ should easily be a $20,000 coin! Certainly an astute purchase at today's price levels. Sliders abound at $5000-$7000, but we doubt that there is another true gem available at any price. The first caller gets it at 13,500.00

1834 NO MOTTO, CH. AU(50/55). 550.00

LIBERTY HEAD QUARTER EAGLES

1840-C, VF-EF(35). Traces of lustre. 395.00
 1840-O, CH. AU(50/55). Usual strike. Akers writes: "Very underrated as a date and greatly undervalued, particularly above EF." 450.00
 1842-O, EF(40). Weak strike. Lustrous, but the centers are somewhat flat. 165.00
 1843-D, EF-AU(45). 495.00
 BU(60) FULL STRIKE. Frosty and satin-like surfaces. Probably the most common Dahlonga quarter eagle, but quite rare in mint state. 1,450.00

1845, CH. BU(60/65) Semi-P-L. The most common quarter eagle in the 1840's in mint state, but still extremely scarce. A very eye-appealing coin. 895.00

1848 CAL, FULL MINT DETAILS. Expertly plugged. The surfaces are dull from the repair. An exceptional strike with as much or more detail as we've seen on any Cal. $2½. With choice UNC. specimens now realizing $30,000+, we feel this coin is fairly priced at 11,500.00

1848-D, EF(40). 450.00
 CH. BU(60/65). Full strike. Frosty and satin-like lustre. Light copper toning. Very attractive. 2,450.00

 1853-D, CH. BU(60/65). Satin-like surfaces. Mostly well struck with some weak areas. Perhaps lightly cleaned in the past. Very rare in all grades. Akers writes: "Invariably poorly struck at the denticles, although the head of Liberty and the eagle are usually fairly sharp. 1853-D, is very rare in all grades and is exceedingly rare in full mint state with no more than three of possibly four pieces existing in that grade." Possibly the FINEST KNOWN example of this underrated date. . 5,750.00

 1854-O, AU(50). 250.00
 CH. AU(50/55). 295.00
 GEM BU(65). Virtually full strike. Full blazing mint lustre. Rare in this condition. Akers writes: "This is a fairly common date, but most of the available specimens are well worn. Truly choice specimens are very rare, with the finest one I have seen being the piece pictured above. Some specimens, such as the one above, show prominent clash marks on the obverse." Unlike the Akers plate coin, this one is struck from perfect dies. 1,750.00

1875-S, CH. BU(60/65). Full strike. Full lustre. Light copper toning. Akers writes: "Like most S mint quarter eagles, the 1875-S is very difficult to obtain above EF. I have seen a number of AU's and three or four uncirculated pieces, but the typically available specimen only grades VF or so. Most of the specimens that I have seen are weakly struck, although not as noticeably so as many of the earlier S Mint quarter eagles. A few, however, . . . are nearly as sharply struck as their Philadelphia Mint counterparts. This is an underrated and undervalued date, particularly in high grade." THREE DOLLAR LIBERTY GOLD

1854, CH. BU(60/65). Full frosty mint bloom.	1,600.00
---	----------

GEM BU(65). Full strike. Full frosty mint bloom. A one-year type coin with small letters in "DOLLARS" in reverse. . 3,250.00

1854-O, EF(40/45). Scarce. 525.00

1855, AU(50). 695.00

GEM BU(65). Full strike. Beautiful light original copper toning. The best we've ever handled. Scarce so nice. 3,250.00

1856-S MEDIUM S, AU(50). Lustrous. Scarce. 950.00

1858, EF(40). 895.00

1860, EF-AU(45). A couple of insignificant edge marks. Scarce. 625.00

1860-S, EF-AU(45). Lustrous. 995.00

1862, EF(40). Mount removed. 425.00

CH. BU(60/65). Full strike. Satin-like surfaces, striated as always. Akers writes: "In my opinion, the 1862 is the most underrated three dollar gold piece in choice uncirculated condition in the 1860's. The 1865 is more rare to be sure, but most collectors and dealers are well aware of its rarity. However, the 1862 has gone largely unnoticed, and in my experience (and according to the auction data below) the 1862 is much more rare in full mint state than the more highly regarded 1863. The exact opposite is true with proofs, though, and the 1862 is actually the most common date in proof of the 1860's, a fact which may be surprising to some since the reported proof mintage of 35 is substantially less than the proof mintages of either the 1864 or 1867. Overall, the 1862 ranks 14th in rarity by number of appearances and 20th according to rarity by average grade. The diagonal field striations that are seen on many business strike 1861's are even more prominent on most regular issue 1862's."

1866, AU(50). Scarce. 995.00

1868, BORDERLINE UNC(55). Lustrous and completely original. 1,295.00

1869, CH. BU(60/65). Semi-P-L. Full strike. A rare coin in mint state. Akers writes: "This is one of the more underrated dates of the 1860's, particularly in choice condition. Despite the fact that the 1869 has the same number of auction records in UNC. as the 1867, I have seen more choice examples of the 1867 than I have of this date. I have also seen more choice UNC's of both the 1863 and 1864 than I have of the 1869. Overall, the 1869 is tied for 15th in the series (out of 44) with respect to rarity by number of appearances. It also is tied for 8th according to rarity by average grade." We sold a gem nearly 2 years ago for $8000, and would gladly pay the owner a profit today. This coin is not as nice, but it is still a handsome coin, and an excellent value at only 3,500.00

1873 CL.3, BORDERLINE UNC(55) P-L. Exceptional quality for this rare date. A couple of tiny hairlines on the obverse, but otherwise immaculate. Presently in great demand. 5,750.00

FOUR DOLLAR LIBERTY GOLD

1879 FLOWING HAIR, CHOICE PROOF. Attractive original copper "orange peel" toning over fully reflective fields. Only the faintest hairlines. Premium quality and realistically priced. 27,500.00

EARLY HALF EAGLES

1795 SM. EAGLE, EF-AU(45). Breen #6-G, R-4. Lustrous and well struck with about 80% of the eagle's breast feathers visible. One very faint hairline scratch is visible on the obverse, and a few tiny edge nicks are mentioned for accuracy's sake. No adjustment marks nor any other defects. A lovely coin which would certainly be graded AU or better by most sellers. Always in great demand. Priced realistically. 6,750.00

1800, CH. BU(60/65). Exceptionally well struck with a satin-like surface. A beautiful example of this rare and popular date. 5,500.00

1803/2, BU(60) P-L. Heavy obv. adjustment marks through cap. Quite choice otherwise. A decent strike and really a lovely coin overall. Priced to sell. 2,450.00

1868-S, CH. AU(50/55). Lustrous. Not rare in EF but quite rare in AU and unknown in Unc. Quite exceptional condition for this date 575.00

1870-CC, EF(40). A great rarity in this condition. Breen writes: "Mintage 7675, which makes this supposedly the third rarest CC half-eagle. It is, however, far more seldom offered than one would expect from its mintage. Only one variety seen, and specimens are normally found in VG to Fine. Eliasberg's is VF, and I have seen one or two others at that level, but have heard of none even approaching EF." We do know of one finer specimen, an AU, which traded hands between dealers at approximately $5000. This specimen is very reasonably priced, at slightly under the current guide book valuation. 3,250.00

1872-S, VF(20) SM. EDGE BUMP. 150.00

1873-CC, BU(60). Fully struck with full frosty mint bloom. Possibly the finest known example of this variety. Breen writes: "Apparently unknown mint state, and of the highest rarity in EF. EARLY EAGLES

- 1797 LG. EAGLE, EF-AU(45). Choice surfaces and well struck for the date. No adjustment marks. Popular. 3,350.00
 1800, VF(30) CLEANED. Scarce date. Reasonably priced. 1,695.00
 EF-AU(45) CHOICE. Sharp strike, no adjustment marks. Scarce and underrated date. Breen's monograph notes that the 1800 eagle is "Nearly as rare as the 1796." Very reasonably priced at 3,650.00

- 1801, GEM BU(65). Exceptionally well struck with full blazing mint frost. No adjustment marks. Sensational quality and practically unavailable these days! A gem 1803 realized $20,500 in the A.N.A. sale. This one is quite reasonable at 13,500.00

LIBERTY HEAD EAGLES

- 1841, VF-EF(35). 215.00
 1847, CH. BU(60/65). Dazzling satin-like surfaces. A needle-sharp strike. Really outstanding quality. 3,250.00
 1853, BORDERLINE UNC(55). 595.00
 BORDERLINE UNC(55/60) FULL STRIKE. Full lustre. 995.00
 1857, EF-AU(45). 350.00
 1862, VF-EF(35). Lightly cleaned. 350.00
 1862-S, EF-AU(45). Scarce and underrated. 595.00
 1866-S WITH MOTTO, EF-AU(45). 795.00
 1873-S, BORDERLINE UNC(55). Fully struck and fully lustrous. A virtual "Choice UNC" coin. Probably the finest known example of this rarity. Breen knew of none even in full EF. An auction record of $1600 exists for this date in AU-50 condition, and we can locate no other high grade specimens sold in recent years. Realistically priced at 1,950.00
 1874, BU(60) P-L. Full strike. Really very scarce in mint state in spite of its modest price listings. 650.00
 1876-CC, CH. AU(50/55). Lustrous and original. Well struck for the date, although not fully struck up in the centers as always. A great rarity in all grades and especially in high grades. This is confirmed by Breen, who writes in his monograph: "Four specimens seen in recent years, three being VF and one slightly lower in grade (the Davis Graves piece); no report of a better one. There may be as many around as twenty but they probably are in the same grade range." Currently in frantic demand, as its rarity is now becoming recognized. Sold to the first caller at 2,600.00
 1876-S, CH. EF(40/45). Lustrous and reasonably well struck. Breen writes: "Very rare and almost unobtainable above VF." . 950.00
 1879-S, CH. BU(60/65). Frosty and well struck. 395.00
 GEM BU(65). Semi-P-L. Virtually full strike and really spectacular condition for this date. 750.00

Discount Gold

Our buyers recently acquired a 140-piece group of this popular date. Even though the mintage on the 1880 is higher than on many of the common dates, its current catalog value in MS-60 is $225.00, compared with the common dates' $210.00 — indicating that the sought-after 1880 is much harder to find!

Our Comprehensive Policies & Services:

1. Guarantees.

☐ Grading

We guarantee that coins purchased from us are graded correctly and will meet our high standards whenever you decide to sell them. Further, we guarantee to purchase these coins at the same grade as they were when sold. If you prefer to sell your collection through auction, New England Rare Coin Auctions will catalog your coins according to the grade at which you purchased them.

Our grading system is patterned after Dr. Sheldon's quantitative scale. Developed to grade Large Cents, his system has been almost universally adopted in recent years. It is now used to describe all denominations and series from Colonials to Pioneer Gold. The numbers used in this system are:

Poor.....	1
Fair.....	2
About Good.....	3
Good.....	4,6
Very Good.....	8,10
Fine.....	12,15
Very Fine.....	20,25,30,35
Extremely Fine.....	40,45
About Uncirculated.....	50,55
Borderline Uncirculated.....	55/60
Uncirculated.....	60
Choice Uncirculated.....	60/65
Gem Uncirculated.....	65
Superb Uncirculated.....	65/70

☐ Authenticity

We further guarantee the authenticity of all coins listed. As proof of our certainty that no counterfeit or altered coin can escape our attention, we guarantee to refund the full purchase price plus 10% interest per year on any non-authentic coin acquired from NERCG.

☐ Value

Compare our value, selection, grading, and prices with other sellers. If, for any reason, you are not satisfied, return your coins WITHIN 30 DAYS from the date you received them for a full refund or replacement.

☐ You have it in writing

These guarantees are issued in writing with all items purchased, and endorsed by two professional numismatists who review your order. Photographs are available upon request for all coins purchased with a value of $1 000 or more.

2. Expertise.

Our staff includes some of the most knowledgeable numismatists in America. We are often sought by government agencies, museums and other coin dealers for advice on authenticity and value. By attending virtually every major coin show and auction, and constantly monitoring dealer teletype circuits, we stay on top of the coin market better than anyone else.

3. Selection.

Our multi-million dollar inventory of rare coins is one of the nation's largest and most comprehensive. In addition, our staff examines several million dollars' worth of coins each week to bring our customers the very best values. New purchases are made available for sale as soon as they are cataloged.

4. Want Lists.

Our sales personnel will actively seek to locate your Want List items, whether the items come from our extensive inventory or from across the country.

5. Credit Cards

You can use your Master Charge, VISA or American Express cards to purchase rare U.S. coins from New England. Simply fill out the appropriate spaces on your order form.

6. Deferred Payment Plan.

Our new Deferred Payment Plan makes financing your rare coin purchases as convenient as possible. The Plan is easy: 25% down payment; 25% each 30 days for a maximum of 90 days; and absolutely no interest charges! $200 is the minimum order allowed under the Plan. If you'd like more information, give us a call.

7. Auction Sales.

New England Rare Coin Auctions offers excellent auction services. In fact, we've been selected to host the 1979 ANA Auction. If you have quality coins to sell, our auction sales will bring the best results. And if you're looking to buy high quality coins, bid at a New England Rare Coin auction.

8. Purchasing.

Each year the demand for high quality rare coins grows. So each year we purchase more and more rare coins. If you have coins to sell, send a description of them to New England. Our buying prices are the highest in the industry.

9. Toll-free Wats Line.

Use our toll-free WATS line (1-800-225-6794) to reserve the coins you wish to order. Should you wish to discuss the sale of your collection, or should you need additional information on any of our services, we'll be happy to assist you.

SUPERB GEM MATTE PROOF. Even greenish gold color, except for a couple of microscopic copper toning spots. The finest matte proof $20 we've ever seen! We can't find ANY imperfection on this coin using a 5x glass. (Although a microscope would probably show up some mark an amoeba could squeeze into.) If a perfect matte proof St. Gaudens double eagle exists, this is it! A superb 1911 realized $22,000 in the recent ANA auction sale. That coin was really nice, but this one is even better. A marginally scarcer date as well. Priced realistically at	24,500.00
